

SOCIETY FOR THE STUDY OF THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY

SSASS at the American Literature Association Convention, San Francisco

Call for Papers

As in the past, SSASS will sponsor two panels and a business meeting at the ALA convention in San Francisco, May 24-27, 2018. For all of you who are able to attend the conference, please make every effort to attend all SSASS events and participate in the activities of the society. Remember that we do not have dues as an organization, but we do expect that members will support and participate in society programs whenever possible. With that in mind, we are issuing a call for papers for the two panels. Please submit your proposal for either panel by January 15, 2018 by sending an email to the president at jnagel@uga.edu. Your document should contain two paragraphs, the first a brief abstract of your central subject and thesis, the second a biographical statement of your academic position, pertinent publications, and your credentials to present on this subject. You should receive a response before the end of January.
